CONTENTS • VOLUME 103 • 2001

Volume 103 No. 1

Special Issue: The 1999 Oberlin Conference in Epistemology

Michael Williams / Contextualism, Externalism and Epistemic Standards 1–23

Timothy Williamson / Comments on Michael Williams' Contextualism, Externalism and Epistemic Standards 25–33

William G. Lycan / Moore Against the New Skeptics 35–53

Earl Conee / Comments on Bill Lycan's Moore Against the New Skeptics 55–59

Richard Feldman / Skeptical Problems, Contextualist Solutions 61–85

Stewart Cohen / Contextualism Defended: Comments on Richard Feldman's Sceptical Problems, Contextualist Solutions 87–98

Volume 103 No. 2

Earl Conee / Heeding Misleading Evidence 99–120

Jonathan Cohen / Color, Content, and Fred 121–144

Stefano Predelli / Names and Character 145–163

Crawford L. Elder / Materialism and the Mediated Causation of Behavior 165–175

Ann Bumpus / Actors Without Intentions: The Double Phenomena View 177–199

David Vander Laan / A Regress Argument for Restrictive Incompatibilism 201–215

Volume 103 No. 3

Michael Glanzberg / The Liar in Context 217–251

Takashi Yagisawa / Partee Verbs 253–270

Bruce Glymour, Marcelo Sabatés and Andrew Wayne / Quantum Java: The Upwards Percolation of Quantum Indeterminacy 271–283

E.C. Tiffany / The Rational Character of Belief and the Argument for Mental Anomalism 285–314

M. Ridge / Taking Solipsism Seriously: Nonhuman Animals and Meta-cognitive Theories of Consciousness 315–340

Volume Contents 341–342

Author Index 343